PRESS RELEASE

31 December 2012, New Delhi

National Book Trust, India is organizing a Rights Table, a special business forum for publishers, during the New Delhi World Book Fair.

Organised for the first time, the New Delhi Rights Table is a special B2B sessions that would enable publishers from across the world to meet each other and conduct business on a one to one basis. The sessions will help both buyers/sellers to tentatively finalise their interests and agreements for transfer of translations and other rights of books available in English, Hindi and other Indian languages.

About 40 publishers from across India and abroad have already registered for the New Delhi Rights Table.

Initiated by National Book Trust, India the New Delhi Rights Table is a part of its efforts to promote Indian books abroad, through its recently launched initiative for providing financial assistance to foreign publishers for translations of Indian books into foreign languages. The deals that are finalized at the New Delhi Rights Table may be considered for financial assistance program, subject to meeting the terms and conditions of the scheme.

The New Delhi Rights Table is being organized from 02-03 February 2013 from 10 am to 5 pm at Lounge B, Near Gate No. 1, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. The online registration is open till 07th January 2013.
