

URGENT NOTICE

This is to inform that in the wake of Preventive Measures of the Government of India to contain the spread of Covid-19 and due to the lockdown in place in Delhi, the Competent Authority of National Book Trust, India has decided to put on hold the opening of Tender (of the three domestic book fairs), that was scheduled for 26 March 2020.

The exact date and time of the Opening of Tender will be notified on NBT's website as and when a decision is taken based on the normalization of the current pandemic situation.