एकः सूते सकलम्

NATIONAL BOOK TRUST, INDIA

ON a little moor
with little grass
lived two cows
- Sheela and Leela.

एक सते सकलम

Everyday they met,
Together they sang song

Just like you say 'Hello' to friends, cows say 'MOO' to each other.

...and drank and dipped in a cool blue pond.

एकः सते सकलम्

The grass on the moor was pale and patchy.

COW
FACTS

Cows can drink a bath tub
full of water every day.

But for this little thing,
life was fun and happy.

nbt.india

एक सूते सकलम

Often Leela would tell Sheela..

“The grass could be green on the other side of the moor, let’s explore Sheela...”

“But what if we do not find our way back home? No Leela!; never be so adventurous!”

COW
FACTS

Just like us, some cows are more adventurous than others.

One day, Sheela did not come to meet Leela.

एकः सूते सकलम्

Cows love eating grass. They also like eating barley and wheat.

Sheela was sad
and all alone.

एकः सूते सकलम्

Leela had a tale to tell.

“On my way to the moor, the rain came pouring down.”

“As I came on the other side, I saw a grassland as far as my eyes could see.

The grass was sweet smelling.
It was lush and green.”

एक: सूत सकलगा

Cows like grass that should be at least six inches tall.

Next day, Leela led Sheela to the new land.

“Oh Leela, what a lovely grassland it is!”

Leela, the bold!

NEETU SHARMA is an award winning activity and picture book author-illustrator. She has written and illustrated picture books with short stories where the emphasis is on helping the child read and understand the story independently. She works with various mediums with ease and has several exhibitions to her credit. This detailed book in appliqué is ample testimony to her dexterity in various mediums.

A delightful tale of two friends, Sheela and Leela, who live on yellow, pale meadows. Sheela is coy, Leela is a bit daring! Let's discover where their unique bonding leads them to! Some COW FACTS run along with the story and add interest to the whole narrative, which the parents and teachers can explain to the young readers as they explore the story...
