

The scheme of grant-in-aid to provide financial assistance to voluntary private organization for organizing the seminars/training course/workshop/annual conventions/book fairs, etc. in connection with the book promotional activities were approved by the Ministry of HRD in 2006. NBT was made a nodal agency to deal with this scheme resulting the financial assistance to NGOs was sanctioned in its 1st meeting held during the year 2006-07 and the payment to NGOs were released during the year 2007-08.

The grant-in-aid committee held its 8th meeting on 14 December 2010 and sanctioned the grant to the total 150 NGOs as stated in the list attached. The payments are to be released to the NGOs in two equal installments, i.e. first installment after furnishing the bond in prescribed form and prior intimation of the event to the Trust. The second installment shall be released after the submission of the details of the expenditure duly certified by the Chartered Accountant, photo copies of the bills/vouchers, utilization certificate on the letter head of the grantee and details of the publicity providing the evidence of the event held with the collaboration of the National Book Trust, India, etc.

The guidelines of the scheme giving introduction, scope, eligibility, condition of grant/assistance and application forms, etc. both in English and Hindi were approved by the Ministry of HRD and is already on the website.
